KEY NOTES

E0 Electronic-only titles are continuously updated throughout the publication year.

OA Open access.

¹ Chinese Physics C is part of the SCOAP3 initiative (scoap3.org), and as such the prices of products containing this title have been reduced to reflect this. The CPC full price is $1,675 for P&E and $1,535 for E-only. For further information go to <http://iopscience.iop.org/info/page/openaccess-scoap3>.

² Non-package subscriptions only available from EDP Sciences at <http://epjjournal.edpsciences.org>. Publishing 24 online issues per year (with 12 printed journals containing two issues each).

³ All subscriptions to Turpin journals include electronic access dating from the first English-translation volumes.

⁴ Combined subscription with Applied Physics Express. Also includes 14 special issues.

IOP Journal Archive

Provide your researchers with permanent access to the definitive electronic collection for the scientific, technical and medical community.

Complete your digital collection with the IOP Journal Archive and give your researchers the opportunity to reach their full potential. From single-title journal archives to the full IOP archive dating back to 1874, you can ensure that your institution is at the forefront of research.

Contact your regional sales representative for details.

Packages

IOPscience | extra™

IOPscience extra™ is an electronic-only subscription package providing access to our complete journals portfolio, partner titles, the complete journal archive (every article published since 1874) and all Physics World content (including the archive).

NEW FOR 2017 – now includes American Astronomical Society titles and Biomedical Physics & Engineering Express. Please contact your regional representative for details.

The following packages are available in print and electronic or electronic-only format and include a 10-year full-text archive (2007–2016 inclusive, where applicable).

PACKAGE Z

All journals (excluding AAS titles, Izvestiya: Mathematics, Russian Chemical Reviews, Russian Mathematical Surveys and Sbornik: Mathematics), plus Physics World.

NEW FOR 2017 – now includes Biomedical Physics & Engineering Express.

Print and electronic package price (20% discount) $138,145

Electronic-only package price (20% discount) $126,908
