KEY NOTES

E O Electronic-only titles are continuously updated throughout the publication year.

OA Open access.

¹ Chinese Physics C is part of the SCOAP³ initiative (scoap3.org), and as such the prices of products containing this title have been reduced to reflect this. The CPC full price is $1,860 for print and electronic, and $1,710 for electronic only. For further information go to iopscience.org/info/page/openaccess-scoap3.

² Non-package subscriptions only available from EDP Sciences at epjjournal.edpsciences.org. Publishing 24 online issues per year.

³ All subscriptions to Turpion journals include electronic access dating from the first English-translation volumes.

⁴ Combined subscription with Applied Physics Express. Also includes 12 special issues.

IOP Journal Archive

Provide your researchers with permanent access to the definitive electronic collection for the scientific, technical and medical community.

Complete your digital collection with the IOP Journal Archive and give your researchers the opportunity to reach their full potential. From single-title journal archives to the full IOP archive dating back to 1874, you can ensure that your institution is at the forefront of research.

Contact your regional representative for details.

IOPscience | extra™

IOPscience extra™ is an electronic-only subscription package providing access to our complete journals portfolio, partner titles, the complete journal archive (every article published since 1874) and all Physics World content (including the archive).

NEW FOR 2019 – now includes Nano Futures, Multifunctional Materials and Advances in Natural Sciences: Nanoscience and Nanotechnology. Please contact your regional representative for details.

IOP | ebooks™

IOP ebooks is an award-winning book program that brings together innovative digital publishing with leading voices from across physics.
