IOP Conference Series

UNLOCKING THE POTENTIAL OF YOUR CONFERENCE

Your end-to-end conference publishing and hosting solution

Publish your conference proceedings with IOP Publishing and we'll help transform them into open access, well cited journals content. As one of the world's largest, and most trusted conference proceedings publishers, we provide you with a fast, easy to use and effective publication process.

We specialise in publishing research presented and discussed at prestigious conferences in the physical sciences, and offer you a suite of tools to deliver seamless management of your conference at every stage of the process, as well as the option to host your conference online.

WHY PUBLISH WITH US?

When you choose to publish your conference proceedings with us, you are choosing experienced hands and an easy-to-use platform that takes you from the call for abstracts stage through to open access publishing, with full access to data and analytics, all included in the standard publishing charge.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS AND ABSTRACT MANAGEMENT → CALL FOR PAPERS AND AUTHOR SUBMISSION → PEER REVIEW MANAGEMENT AND SIMILARITY CHECKING → ONE-CLICK SUBMISSION TO THE PUBLISHER → OPEN ACCESS PUBLISHING ON IOPSCIENCE → DATA AND ANALYTICS

Our new workflow tools are powered by Morressier, the leading virtual conference and publishing platform for the scientific community. Morressier-hosted virtual and hybrid conferences provide a superior experience for you, your presenters, and your attendees.

ONLINE CONFERENCES

Easily manage all aspects of your event in one place with an optional service integrating conference management tools for virtual and hybrid conference hosting.

DISCOVERABLE PROCEEDINGS

Your conference will be published under an open access licence on our journals publishing platform, IOPscience. Making it available to all and ensuring maximum visibility for your event. All papers are widely indexed and discoverable across all major discovery services.

FAST AND AFFORDABLE

Six weeks is all it takes to publish your articles from submission. We also run peer review and similarity checks as part of our comprehensive publishing solution.

BROAD RANGE OF CONTENT

Capture and preserve in perpetuity all the outputs from your conference including abstracts, proceedings papers, posters and video.
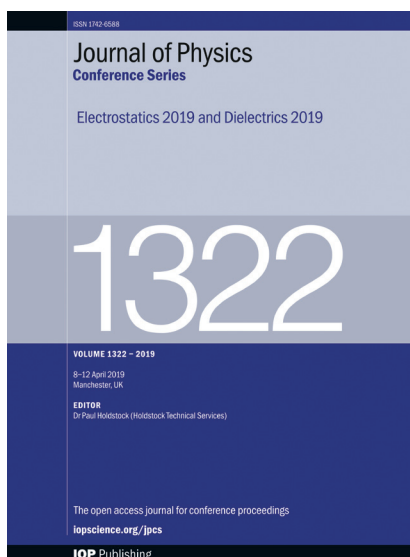

FULLY SCALABLE

Whether your conference consists of a dozen papers or thousands, you can easily manage your event on our Conference Series platform.
